Hello and welcome to all patrons of the 24th chapter of the CMCA on this our 13th birthday celebration in 07', held in the school hall at Muckleford a quaint but serviceable place to celebrate our existence as Motor home folk on this planet of ours (" boy that was deep") those pocket size readers digest have got a lot to answer for. Anyway back to reality, after a little detour we came barrelling around a bend in the track I mean road when all of a sudden we came upon a not so unusual sight of 2 beings doing their version of Cliff young along the road in front of us. I looked across to the pilot and said, "I know that ass anywhere" its john Arnott" (sorry john) as he takes his foot out of mouth. After a brief chat we knew we were on the right track and headed to the site only to be met by a horde of vans and occupants busily going about their duties i.e. fire watching a very tedious but necessary part of free camping. After locating and unhitching the Chuck wagon in its possie thanks to George we found a suitable site and settled down to a weekend of enjoyment and celebration.

First prize

The Bushwacker prize was a special one this time Lyn Arnott did some of her sewing talents by putting the bushwackers logo on a throw blanket which was no mean feat in it's self and was WON by Sylvia congratulations and commiserations to her by winning that and to Ian for doing the dishes.

Acknowledgements

Now some acknowledgements are in order, Robbo and Julie and the Committee for overseeing the proceedings and to all those that attended.” it was you that made it what it was fun “.... Robbo and Ian Callander also acknowledged the Linton's for their commendable efforts very early in the life of the bush-wackers

Weather

The weather was also kind to us cool and cloudy, patchy drizzle nothing bad enough to dampen the spirit. Although I was told it was about 4 degrees in some vans Friday nite that's cool.

See you at Mt Franklin
Don't forget Saturday night is soup night .
