Lang - Lang Showgrounds October 07'

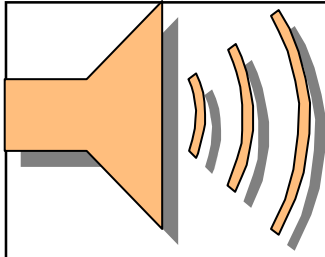

Main street 1990

One of the attractions

my 2 bob's worth

Hello and welcome to another Bushwacker extravaganza brought to you from Lang-Lang Showground's for October 07'.

The weather for the week-end was a little dismal but not deterring as it turned out pleasant.

Friday was a little damp under foot but mostly over night so we were greeted by sunshine next morning.

There was 8 units when we arrived at 7pm and swelled out to 16 by Saturday Avro .

We “ the committee” were surprised by the turn out to a new venue .It did make all the efforts that was put into the venue worth while so give yourselves a pat on the back.

The word went out that there was an op shop in town so there was a mass exit from the camp, I think some of the shop keepers are planning their retirement after the injection of money by the Motor homers, I am told the other shops got a pounding also who said we don't help out places we go to .

Some of us are heading to the pub for tea sat nite “another bonus for the town “

The local cricket match gave those sports minded people some light entertainment.

All in all the week end was a success everyone commented on the location and the GREEN grass every where .

ED.....

OH I almost forgot a big welcome to our visitors too.

Bushwacker Prize

Went to Helen and commiserations' to Theo for the dishes “ good onyah bloke “

Cooks on the day were, TOAST Hal and Karen, Sue and Mary.

Marties was Julie's job .

Those who came to see

Pam ,Theo and Helen , Robbo and Julie , Sue and George , Maurie and Mary , Hal and Karin , Frank and Marie , Steve and Lynda , Alan Barnes , John and Lyn , Christine and Garry , Bruce and Elaine , John and Miriam ,And a fleeting visit from Heather on her way to relatives .

Visitors -: Pat and Ken , Rex , Ron , Jennifer made up the contingent for the week-end .

Directions to Kurth kiln

To get to Kirth Kiln -: From Gem brook take C424 (launching place road) For approx 8.5 kms .

Turn left at Soldiers road .(There is a stand pipe on the corner) .

Travel approx 1.5 km to a FENCED OFF AREA on the left.

Enter via Gate only.

It is advisable to go this way NOT the back way as it is in poor condition with holes and wash ways and ruts.....

With all the changes in and around the kiln the Ranger has advised us that under NO circumstances there is to be any camping in the car park area..There are no exceptions to this rule .

SEE U THERE !!!
